

Sinclair Broadcasting is abusing its power in ordering local stations to broadcast a political documentary attacking John Kerry. For God's sake, how about doing your job and representing the public. They are using public airways. They should be halted from doing this or required to offer some balancing programming.